Nationwide Fellowship on the CRBC Campus

At right: preparing the campus for the influx of brethren from throughout Sierra Leone. The fellowship meeting lasted three days, with worship nightly.

The temporary shade was packed with those who came from miles around. Joseph stated that the numbers grew daily of those who came for this first time event on campus. With this type of exposure, the CRBC has been gaining nationwide recognition.

Vehicles carrying passengers and supplies made the trip to Koindu.

Joseph speaks to the crowd that attended this three day event.

Supporting U.S. Congregations

Loveland Heights Church of Christ

Since February of 2020 the Loveland Heights brethren have supported the CRBC without fail. After a mass emailing to several congregations throughout the U.S. the call was answered by these dear saints. Brother Kip Ping, who serves as an elder here, has been so helpful in communicating with us as representative of the congregation, located in Loveland Heights, Ohio. In the beginning of the CRBC's search for property on which to base the campus, a sister from Loveland Heights selflessly donated enough funds to pay for the greater portion of the cost to purchase the land. Since then, we have been pleasantly surprised where others have, from this congregation, donated individually to this very crucial work of training the next generation of preachers in this area of West Africa.

Ongoing Construction

On the left is the well drilling equipment that Sunset International Bible Institute supplied in donating a drilled well for the campus. Below that is the pump once the well was finished. The outhouse (right) has been finished as well the kitchen (below). SIBI donated solar energy for electric to power computers, cell phones and lighting.

The Christian Research Bible College First Class of Students

Once the study material from SIBI was obtained, the school building and class furniture completed, the classes began. Pictured here are the first students, with instructors, who are attending the CRBC.

Sierra Leone

Sierra Leone was a British Crown Colony from 1808 to April 27, 1961 when it achieved independence, but periods of political turbulence have marked its recent history. On 19 April 1971, Siaka Stevens' government abolished Sierra Leone's parliamentary government system and declared Sierra Leone a presidential republic. Sierra Leone Colony and Protectorate lasted until 1961 when it gained independence from the United Kingdom, with Elizabeth II as Queen of Sierra Leone. It retained her as head of state for a decade until 1971, when the country became a republic. (Wikipedia) Koindu is home to the CRBC; the location is shown by the red arrow.

Support Information

If you, as an individual, or your congregation is interested in funding the CRBC, checks can be made out to: “Lighthouse Church of Christ”; memo line “Joseph Yillia/CRBC” (address listed below). An updated financial report can be sent to any donor. Budgets can be tight but even a small amount of $50 each month would go a long way toward the goal of finishing the campus of the CRBC. If you wish to support the Ghana Bible College please contact me through chapelalley@gmail.com. Remember, even the widow’s mite will go a long way.
