To: Beloved givers and Donors in Christ Jesus,

It is with a humble heart and gratitude that I write to express our thanks and appreciation for what you're doing for us in the Lord. Words cannot express how we feel and are glad towards the progress of the Lord's work and your immense contribution to see that we are firmly establish. We have nothing to render back than to thank and to keep praying for you all that the Lord who began the good work in you will continue to reward you abundantly and to grant you your desire of eternity in Jesus name. We are very glad and pleased having the Lord's work here sustained and progressive through your contribution. The entire church is glad and brethren are grateful to God Almighty and to you too. We please plead with you to continue your love and concern for us for the Lord sake and the church. We are in turn faithful to the Lord for all that He is doing for us through you. May He continue to richly bless us all for His own glory and good will. We are grateful having our dad in the Lord Bro. Charli Yana for his relentless effort and love he is showing us. The Lord bless him richly with sound health and long life. Once again I say thank you all.

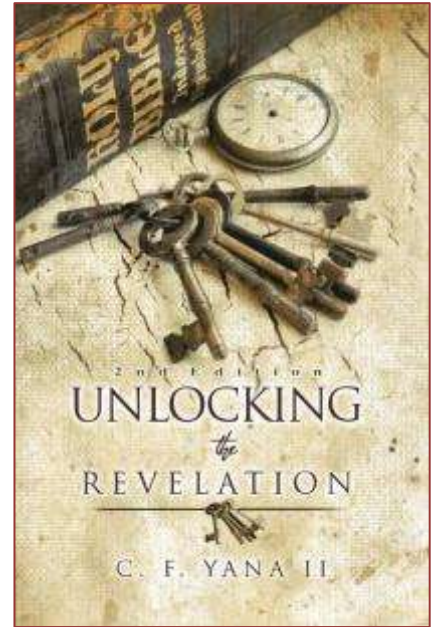

Yours beloved in Him
Anthony Joseph Yillia.
