

Angels (ἄγγελος—Gk.32 [to bring tidings] a messenger) (Context: 2 Cor 12:1-7 verses Rev 2:1)

Appearance:

Masculine or Feminine?

Gen 18:1-2 ...three men stood by him...
 22 ...the men turned their faces...
 19:1 ...there came two angels to Sodom...

Dan 8:15-16 ...as the appearance of a man...Gabriel...
 9:21 ...even the man Gabriel... (Lk 1:19, 26)

Mat 28:3-4 His countenance...his raiment...for fear of him...

Acts 1:10 ...two men stood by them in white apparel;..

Jude 9 ...Michael the archangel...

Do angels have wings?

Zech 5:9 ...two women...wind in their wings...like the wings of a stork...

(This is prophetic language rehearsed to Zechariah by an angel concerning symbols of God's judgment, executing His wrath on those who opposed the rebuilding of the temple.)

Isa 6

(Do not literalize a passage, not even part, or you must literalize the whole. Covering of the wings is said to symbolize their submission to God and ready willingness to do His will.)

- There is not one descriptive passage of an actual angel having literal wings...only figurative passages.
- Spirit beings do not need wings to fly.

Psa 104:4 Who maketh His angels spirits; His ministers a flaming fire:

Heb 1:7 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.

Heb 1:14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

Do angels have halos?

Dan 10:6 ...face like the appearance of lightning...

Mat 28:3 His countenance was like lightning...

Lk 2:9 ...angel of the Lord...shone round about them...
24:4 ...in shining garments...

Acts 12:7 ...angel...light shined...
(Read Ex 34:29-35 ...the skin of his face shone...)

Rev 10:1 ...rainbow was upon His head...
(This is not a literal rainbow. It is just a symbol of a divine covenant and message of mercy. Gen 9:12-17; Rev 4:3)

- The halo ..."adapted from mythology...originally rejected by artists of Christendom because of its pagan origin...not used...until about the fifth century A.D. ...no mention of the halo in scriptural teaching".
- Angels are ..."invisible, spirit beings without physical bodies unless they assume such."

2 Kings 6:16-17 (as horsemen with chariots sent to protect Elisha and his servant from the king of Syria and his armies.)

Ps 68:17 ...chariots of God...even thousands of angels...

Ex 3:2 ...the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush...

Do angels sing?

Job 38:7 ...morning stars sang...sons of God (1:6; 2:1) shouted for joy...

The only place in scripture where angels are recorded to be "singing" is in the above passage.

- Hebrew word for "sing".

H7442 שָׁרָן raw-nan'

A primitive root; properly to creak (or emit a stridulous sound), that is, to shout (usually for joy): - aloud for joy, cry out, be joyful, (greatly, make to) rejoice, (cause to) shout (for joy), (cause to) sing (aloud, for joy, out), triumph.

- Hebrew word for "shout".

H7321 רוּאָה roo-ah'

A primitive root; to mar (especially by breaking); figuratively to split the ears (with sound), that is, shout (for alarm or joy): - blow an alarm, cry (alarm, aloud, out), destroy, make a joyful noise, smart, shout (for joy), sound an alarm, triumph.

Lk 2:13-14 ...praising God and saying...

(Contrary to the popular song "Hark The Herald..." the angels did not sing!)

- Greek word for "saying".

G3004 λέγω legō leg'-o

A primary verb; properly to "lay" forth, that is, (figuratively) relate (in words [usually of systematic or set discourse; whereas G2036 and G5346 generally refer to an individual expression or speech respectively; while G4483 is properly to break silence merely, and G2980 means an extended or random harangue]); by implication to mean: - ask, bid, boast, call, describe, give out, name, put forth, say (-ing, on), shew, speak, tell, utter.

Rev 5:8-10 ...and they sung...

Who? Not angels but the four creatures and the twenty-four elders!

Rev 5:11-12 ...and the voice of many angels...Saying with a loud voice...

- Some modern versions have substituted "saying" with "singing" erroneously. (NIV/TLB) The Greek word for sing is ado (αδο) (Gk.103-to sing).

Do angels play harps?

Rev 5:8 ...having every one of them harps... (beasts and elders, again, not the angels who appear in verse 11.)

- The three groups worshipping in this scene (elders, creatures and angels) figuratively represent "all of God's animate creation...worshipping Him, serving His purposes and praising Him constantly."

Do angels play trumpets?

1 Thes 4:16 ...with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God... (No angel sounds the trumpet!)

G4536 σάλπιγξ salpigx sal'-pinx

Perhaps from G4535 (through the idea of quavering or reverberation); a trumpet: - trump (-et).

The trumpet of the Old Testament was to indicate a warning or an announcement. Likewise in the New.

Rev 1:10 ...heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet...

1 Cor 15:52 ...the last trump... equals the last announcement.

With 1 Thes 4:16 in mind then, the Lord (Jesus) when He returns will bring with Him, among other things, the last announcement of God.

Jn 5:28 ...shall hear His voice...

In Rev 8:2, 6; 9:14 we find seven angels with seven trumpets.
This is apocalyptic language and thus is not to be take as literal.
